

Chief Complaint (CC)

32-year-old male who had progression in his spine and received radiation therapy

History of Present Illness (HPI)

- Diagnosed in 2006 with nodular sclerosis Hodgkin lymphoma
- Initial Treatment: ABVD followed by progression and received ICE
- Received gemcitabine-based salvage regimen
- October 2007: ASCT
- Progressed one year later and was treated with brentuximab vedotin on clinical trial
- Progression in his spine and received radiation therapy; over the next several years received investigational therapies including gemcitabine-based chemotherapies
- Presented in follow up roughly three years ago with progressive disease in his back

Test Results Observed

- PET scan showed diffuse adenopathy
- No heart disease or pulmonary disease
- Enrolled on clinical trial investigating PD-1 antibody nivolumab for patients with relapsed or refractory HL